

CONTENTS

Foreword Gordon Williams	vii
Biographies	viii
Preface	ix
Introduction	x
1 Obstetric fistulae: cause and nature; the obstetric fistula complex; classification	1
2 Diagnosis	14
3 Management of early cases	21
4 Preoperative preparation	24
5 In theatre	28
6 The operations	37
Basic principles	37
Selection of cases for the beginner	48
Juxta-urethral and circumferential fistulae	54
Operative steps to reduce the incidence of stress incontinence	69
Juxta- and intra-cervical fistulae	73
The abdominal approach	80
Urethral reconstruction	83
Vaginal skin defects	87
The Martius fat graft	89
Bladder stones	92
Failed repair and re-operation	95
Ureteric fistulae	98
7 Recto-vaginal fistulae	101
8 Repair of anal sphincter injuries	111
9 Management of post-repair incontinence	113
10 Management of the inoperable case	123
11 Postoperative nursing care of the fistula patient	133
12 Assessment of results	147

13	Problems, complications and how to get out of trouble	151
	Appendix A: Books, training material and suppliers	155
	Appendix B: Demographic and fistula characteristics	158
	Acknowledgements	160
	Index	163